Donald V. Dortenzo is a process improvement specialist with the Software Productivity Consortium in Herndon, VA, where he is part of the Product and Process Measurement Project. Mr. Dortenzo provides software process improvement, assessment, and measurement consulting and training services to member companies and clients. He has worked with a variety of member companies and clients in the commercial, financial, telecommunications, and government contracting markets. He is currently working in the areas of software process management, quality management, technology innovation, and continuous improvement. Mr. Dortenzo is authorized by the Software Engineering Institute (SEI) as a Lead Assessor to perform CMM^{SM}-Based Assessments for Internal Process Improvement (CBA IPI). Mr. Dortenzo is also a Qualified Practical Software Measurement (PSM) Instructor. Prior to joining the Consortium, Mr. Dortenzo has held various software engineering and management positions with several companies including Lockheed Martin, Orbital Sciences Corp., Fairchild Space and Defense, Booz Allen and Hamilton, and Computer Sciences Corporation. Mr. Dortenzo has a Bachelors Degree in Aerospace Engineering from the Pennsylvania State University.